The “Who Am I” Meeting August 25, 2009

President Bill started the meeting with greetings and a song from Chuck K. Introductions featured our incoming exchange student from Belgium, Camille Adam. Camille arrived in the US the previous week and has already gotten involved on the swimming team. Welcome Camille! We also greeted prospective member Helen Schmidt, who had her meeting with the Rotary Information Committee just before the meeting, as a prelude to membership in our Club!

Announcements included reminders about the Rotary District 7120 Golf tournament at Lima Country Club on September 12, Brighton’s Homecoming celebration on September 19, where Brighton Rotary will have a table and will march in the annual Homecoming parade with Al Hawn’s classic truck, the Hike for Haccamo on October 12, and the Eastern Cities Dinner, featuring RI President D.K. Lee on October 29.

The crowd seemed happy, but Happy Dollars were relatively sparse. Ram Shrivastava and Chuck Turner each chipped in because they had worn ties, apparently missing the email from Deanna about an “informal” program. Chuck also paid the happiest of dollars, in recognition of his 41 happy years with his wife Marian. Janet Boccacino’s trip to Boston was worth recognition as well.

As everyone arrived at the meeting, Deanna, Lauren and Allison gave them a brief “Who am I” questionnaire... that led into our informal but highly entertaining program for the evening. Each questionnaire asked us to list four things our fellow members might NOT know about us...and one thing that would be a dead giveaway. As our three ringleaders read the anonymous lists, we all took turns at guessing the identity. We learned lots of new information on all of our members in the house...even our prospective member Helen! Who knew that Janet Boccacino is a Cubs fan...not just a 'Cuse fan. Who knew that Ram was a hunter or that Chuck wears women's clothing! Wait...that last one might have been a spoof perpetrated by President-Elect Gary...but he wasn't admitting anything! We all had lots of fun guessing...it was a great way to do a little bonding with our fellow members too. Thanks Deanna, Lauren and Allison for a great program!

President Bill closed the meeting with a reminder that there is no meeting on Labor Day, but that on September 8, we will be meeting at the usual time, but different place...the Pieters Life Center of Heritage Christian Services, located at 1900 East Henrietta Road in Henrietta. Director Andrew Little will tell us more about this great new facility.
